Add Menu	1)Administrator will see the add menu form. 2)Administrator will type item name in item name text field. 3)Administrator will type item description in item description text field. 4) Administrator will type item price in item price text field. 5) Administrator will select item image from brows button. 6) Administrator will click on save button.
Billing	1)Administrator will open Billing form. 2)Administrator will get the order from customer. 3)Administrator will calculate bill as well as he can give discount to customer. 4) Administrator will save bill in database and show to customer.